Year in review

$17.6 million
to support Queensland country race clubs.

Established the Office of the Independent Assessor to manage councillor conduct complaints.

$26 million
increase in prize money for Queensland thoroughbred racing and an additional $12 million over three years for greyhound and harness racing.

across three rounds of funding under the Works for Queensland program delivering more than 1,350 minor works and essential infrastructure projects in 65 local governments.

$119.5 million
in funding through the Local Government Grants and Subsidies Program from 2017-21 programs to support 170 priority local government capital works projects.

86 of 104 actions
were completed and 17 actions partially completed as at 30 June 2019.

$2.3 million
in funding to 19 organisations through the Community Action for a Multicultural Society program to build intercultural connection for groups and individuals in the wider community.

Funding doubled
for the Celebrating Multicultural Queensland program with $2 million allocated to support over 164 events and projects celebrating multiculturalism and providing opportunities for social and economic participation for everyone.

$1.78 million
funding through the Asylum Seeker and Refugee Assistance initiative to deliver practical support to vulnerable asylum seekers and temporary protection visa holders.

Engaged Welcoming Cities to support regional local governments in attracting, growing and retaining diversity and improve social and cultural participation.

Welcomed 21 new organisations to the Multicultural Queensland Ambassador Program, bringing the total number to 101 Ambassador organisations.